CONSENT

If any illness or other change of circumstances occurs after filling in this form, please provide written details to your church/organisation group leader (who should pass this information on to the SOLID team on arrival at the festival).

- I consent for the participant to have first aid as necessary and to be taken to medical or dental facilities as appropriate. I understand that the event leaders will make every effort to contact me if the participant has to access medical treatment at a hospital or clinic. *
- I certify that the participant is not receiving medical attention or taking medication (except as already stated) and that they are fit and able to take part in all the activities of the event. *
- I understand that Scripture Union and the other SOLID Festival partners will have official photographers at the Festival (identified by blue hi-vis jackets) who will be taking individual and wide angle shots of Participants and we cannot guarantee any child will not be featured unless they or their group leader sees the photographer and requests not to be included at the time the image/recording is being made. Images/footage will be used for promotional and training purposes and may appear on social media sites. *
- I give permission for my child to attend the SOLID Festival and agree to the Terms and Conditions listed on the SOLID website. *

DATA PROTECTION

- Festival Data is co-ordinated by the Red Balloon Foundation on behalf of Scripture Union. RBF is Registered Data Controller (number ZA092364) with the Information Commissioners Office and will ensure your data is handed in compliance with Data Protection regulations at all times. If you are happy for RBF or Scripture Union to contact you after the Festival with information on future events and/or for your child's feedback on the festival experience, please tick here. If you do not give consent here, RBF will securely destroy all the data it holds about you and Scripture Union will only retain information for its Child Safeguarding records.

Please note that for the duration of the weekend, the information on this form is shared with Stubbers Adventure Centre for the purposes of ensuring adequate Health & Safety measures are in place across the site, but it is securely destroyed at the end of the festival. The information on this form will be additionally held by the church/organisation who are organising for your child to attend the festival and you should check with them directly about how they will handle your data.
